

FCC,

Please don't change FCC media rules. The contrast between American media and independent media is already great enough. Don't allow corporate interest to monopolize the news that the American public receives.